CALL FOR PROPOSALS
The Sociedade Portuguesa de Psicologia Comunitária is pleased to host the 2nd International Conference on Community Psychology in Lisboa from 4th to 6th June 2008.

Following the experience of San Juan - Puerto Rico, we believe that with this Conference we have the opportunity to consolidate trans-national and trans-disciplinary research and practice networks within the diversity of Community Psychology perspectives in a worldwide scale.

The main theme will be delivered through a number of key thematic areas:

Program formats

Abstracts will be accepted for the following types of session to be held at the 2nd International Conference of Community Psychology.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Type</th>
<th>Description</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Panel Presentation</td>
<td>This is an individual oral presentation. The presentations received will be grouped into panels based on similarity of content. Each panel will include a maximum of 3 persons.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Organized Symposium</td>
<td>A symposium should be composed of three presentations selected by the submitting author. It should provide a debate of diverse perspectives concerning significant issues in the field and allow significant time for questions and discussion.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Roundtable Discussions</td>
<td>A roundtable discussion is a lead discussion of a specific topic or issue. It may be led by one or more presenters who will actively interact with participants and facilitate the audience participation. The preparation of a set of questions to guide the discussion is recommended.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Workshops</td>
<td>A workshop may be taught by one or more instructors. This format is especially appropriate to share expertise and teach new skills of relevance to the field.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Innovative Sessions</td>
<td>Innovative sessions will provide opportunities to address issues of relevance to community psychology in innovative ways or unusual session formats, to facilitate exchange and interaction among participants.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Poster Presentations</td>
<td>Posters should emphasize substantive research results. During poster sessions, authors will be present to discuss their work informally with the public.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Guidelines for submitting proposals
